

directs to home-page

change to 'your account'
tab if logged in.

STEMM Role Models

About Join Login

Kirstie Jane Whitaker, Ph.D.

Postdoctoral Fellow
Department of Psychiatry
Cambridge University, Cambridge, UK

Something missing?
Contribute to Kirstie's profile.

Expertise

|                   |   |
|-------------------|---|
| Field(s)          | Neuroscience  |
| Keywords          | Developmental cognitive neuroimaging; MRI; fMRI; DTI; longitudinal analyses; reproducible and replicable research; emergence of psychiatric disorders; adolescence; network analyses; graph theory; cortical thickness; myelination; depression |
| Publication links | PubmedGoogle Scholar  |
| Project links     | GitHub  |

Role model keywords

Woman

Contact

|         |   |
|---------|---|
| Email   | kw401@cam.ac.uk                        |
| Website | http://www.kirstiewhitaker.com |
| Social  | LinkedIn  |

Testimonials

Seen Jane Doe give a great talk?
Tell us about it.

Kirstie is a dynamic and engaging speaker. She has a clear passion for her work on structural and functional brain changes during childhood and adolescence and how aberrant developmental trajectories may underlie the emergence... more

Rosalind F, Jan 4th 2016

I've heard Dr Whitaker speak at careers events about how she started her academic career in Physics and ended up in a department of Psychiatry and she's a great inspiration to students who may not know what direction to take!

Marie C, Jan 4th 2016

This portion of the page is a panel you scroll through for info. All else (e.g. banners, name, testimonials) stays fixed.

changes to a 'manage your profile' button if logged in and viewing own profile.
Routes to log-in if not logged on.
Routes to edit profile if logged in.

Panel scrolls through all testimonials (trying to avoid profiles looking too empty for people with few testimonials)